SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall participate in a substance abuse program approved by the United States Probation Office, which program may include testing to determine whether the defendant has reverted to using drugs or alcohol. The Court authorizes the release of available drug treatment evaluations and reports to the substance abuse provider, as approved by the Probation Officer. The defendant may be required to contribute to the costs of services rendered (co-payment), in an amount determined by the probation officer, based on ability to pay or availability of third-party payment.
2. The defendant shall participate in an alcohol aftercare treatment program under a co-payment plan, which may include testing via breathalyzer at the direction and discretion of the probation officer.
3. The defendant shall submit his person, and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, and effects to search at any time, with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement or probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of probation/supervised release or unlawful conduct by the person, and by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions.
4. The defendant shall participate in whatever vocational counseling and training is ordered by the Probation Officer.

The defendant is to report to the nearest Probation Office within 72 hours of release from custody.

The defendant shall be supervised by the district of residence.

Standard condition 6 is amended to: The defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment, or if such notification is not possible, then within five days after such change.
